

Spencer Burke Named Eugene F. Williams, Jr. Executive in Residence for Family Business at the Olin School of Business

Spencer B. Burke, Principal at The St. Louis Trust & Family Office

Spencer Burke, Principal at St. Louis Trust & Family Office and adjunct lecturer in family business at the Olin School of Business at Washington University in St. Louis, has been named the Eugene F. Williams, Jr. Executive in Residence for the Koch Center for Family Business.

Earlier this year, four members of St. Louis' Koch family (Roger and Fran Koch and Paul and Elke Koch) committed $12 million to endow and establish the Koch Center for Family Business at the Olin School. The primary aim of the new family business program is to "educate future business leaders on unique family business issues while providing resources for family enterprise as they grapple with these challenges."

As the Executive in Residence at the Center, Spencer will interact regularly with students, offering his expertise in analyzing family business issues.

ArchBridge Family Office is an independent, multi-family office and trust company that advises 65 clients on more than $13 billion of investment assets and more than $16 billion of total wealth. Founded in 2002, ArchBridge Family Office provides holistic, high-touch client service including customized, independent investment management and a full range of family office and fiduciary services. The firm serves a limited number of clients with substantial wealth in order to maintain very low client-to-employee ratios. Visit archbridge.com to explore how the firm manages complexity with unmatched expertise and a Family, Forward focus.