

ArchBridge Family Office Hires New Director of Private Markets

Stephen Cooper has joined ArchBridge Family Office as Director of Private Markets. In his role, Stephen will support the firm's efforts in sourcing, evaluating, and monitoring private market investment opportunities across private equity, venture capital, private credits, and real assets. He will also be assisting client teams across public equity and fixed-income strategies, contributing to investment research and education efforts.

Prior to joining ArchBridge, Stephen was a Principal at a London-based single-family office where he helped build a global portfolio of direct early-stage investments. His other previous roles were with Ascension Ventures, a strategic healthcare venture fund with over $1 Billion under management, and BJC Healthcare where he assisted in allocating the hospital system's corporate and pension assets.

Stephen earned his Masters in Finance from London Business School and his Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from the University of Missouri. He is a CFA® Charterholder and member of the CFA® Society of St. Louis.

ArchBridge Family Office is an independent, multi-family office and trust company that advises 65 clients on more than $13 billion of investment assets and more than $15 billion of total wealth. Founded in 2002, ArchBridge Family Office provides holistic, high-touch client service including customized, independent investment management and a full range of family office and fiduciary services. The firm serves a limited number of clients with substantial wealth in order to maintain very low client-to-employee ratios.
